Certain words used in the Policy have special meanings. The Definitions section of this document on pages 5 and 6 contain such terms. In some cases, certain words may be given a special meaning in a particular section of the Policy when used or in the other documents making up the Policy.

Headings are provided for reference only and do not form part of the Policy for interpretation purposes.

Our contract with you

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with You it is a contract of insurance between Us and You (see the definition of "You" for details of who is covered by this term).

The Policy consists of:

- this document which sets out the standard terms of Your cover and its limitations,
- Your current Schedule issued by Us. The Schedule is a separate document, which shows the insurance details relevant to You. It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this; and
- any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an endorsement). These written changes may vary or modify the above documents.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

We provide the cover specified in the Policy subject to its terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this insurance where permitted to do so by law.

Any new or replacement schedule We may send You, detailing changes to Your insurance or the Period of Insurance, will become the current Schedule, which You should carefully read and retain.

Premium

Your premium – the base premium We charge is calculated based on a number of factors such as:

- Your risk profile and the ratings We apply to Your profile (e.g. the type of property being insured, the cover and limits required and Your insurance history etc).
- certain costs incurred by Us in relation to the Terrorism Insurance Act (where applicable); and
- Our obligation to pay relevant government taxes and charges. For example, We include an amount that covers stamp duty and GST payable in relation to the Policy. In cases where We are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. for Fire Services Levies) based on criteria set by the Government, We allocate to the Policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may over or under recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Schedule, which will be sent to You after the entry into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy.

Your obligation to comply with the Policy terms and conditions

You are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Please remember that if You do not comply with any term or condition, We may (to the extent permitted by law) decline or reduce any claim payment and/or cancel the Policy.

If more than one person is insured under the Policy, a failure or wrongful action by one of those persons may adversely affect the rights of any other person insured under the Policy.

How to make a claim

If You need to make a claim under the Policy, please refer to Making a claim on pages 13 and 14.

Cooling Off Period

You can exercise Your cooling off rights and cancel the Policy within fourteen (14) days of the date You purchased the Policy and receive a refund of the premium paid, provided You have not exercised any right or power under the Policy (e.g. made any claim) and these rights and powers have not ended.

We may deduct any reasonable administrative and transaction costs incurred by Us that are reasonably related to the acquisition and termination of the Policy and any government taxes or duties We cannot recover, from Your refund amount.

After the cooling off period has ended, You still have cancellation rights, however We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, plus any reasonable administrative costs and any government taxes or duties We cannot recover. See “Cancellation rights under Your Policy” below.

Cancellation rights under the Policy

How You may cancel this Policy

You may cancel this Policy at any time by telling Us in writing that You want to cancel it. You can do this by giving the notice to Your broker or Us.

Where there is more than one contracting insured We will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all contracting insured's named as the insured or from a person authorised to act as agent of all such persons.

How We may cancel this Policy

- a. We have the right to cancel the Policy where permitted by and in accordance with law. For example, We may cancel:
 - if You failed to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure; or
 - where You have made a misrepresentation to Us during negotiations prior to the issue of the Policy; or
 - where You have failed to comply with a provision of the Policy, including the term relating to payment of premium; or
 - where You have made a fraudulent claim under the Policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time that the Policy covers You, and
 - We may do so by giving You three days notice in writing of the date from which the Policy will be cancelled. The notification may be delivered personally or posted to You at the address last notified to Us.
- b. Subject to c., if You or We cancel the Policy We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative and transaction costs related to the acquisition and termination of the Policy We incur and any government taxes or duties We cannot recover.

- c. In the event that You have made a claim under the Policy and We have agreed to pay the full sum insured for Your Vehicle(s) no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium on the Vehicle(s) subject to the claim.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into the Policy with Us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires You to disclose to Us every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know is relevant to Our decision whether and on what terms Your application for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for Your insurance.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the Policy.

The duty applies until the Policy is entered into, or where relevant, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated (Relevant Time). If anything changes between the time You provide answers or make disclosure and the Relevant Time, You need to tell Us.

What You do not need to tell Us

You do not need to tell Us about any matter that:

- diminishes Our risk;
- is of common knowledge;
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We tell You We do not need to know.

Who does the duty apply to?

The duty of disclosure applies to You and everyone that is an insured under the Policy. If You provide information for another insured, it is as if they provided it to Us.

What happens if the duty of disclosure is not complied with?

If the duty of disclosure is not complied with We may cancel the Policy and/or reduce the amount We pay if You make a claim. If fraud is involved, We may treat the Policy as if it never existed, and pay nothing.

 - f. immediately send Us any claim, writ, summons, or full details of other relevant legal or other proceedings such as an impending prosecution or inquest You receive or become aware of;
 - g. at all times give Us all the information and assistance We may reasonably require.
2. You MUST NOT:

General Conditions applicable to all Sections of the Policy

Alteration of Risk

Notice of any intended alterations of or departure from normal working conditions that would materially affect the risk of loss, Damage or liability must be given to Us in writing. We shall not be liable for any loss or Damage resulting from an aggravated risk unless prior approval of the modification has been obtained from Us. If You do not give Us such notice before the happening of an event giving rise to a claim under the Policy then, subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, We may refuse to pay a claim either in total or in part. However if such notice is given and We cannot approve any such modifications We may cancel the insurance on the insured item affected making a return of premium proportional to the unexpired Period of Insurance and the reduced risk.

Automatic Additions and Deletions

We will include in Your cover any replacement or additional items of Insured Property acquired by You during the Period of Insurance provided that:

- a. such additional Insured Property is of a substantially similar type to the Insured Property at the commencement of the Period of Insurance;
- b. the maximum cover We provide on the acquisition under this Condition does not exceed $250,000 or the Market Value of the acquisition, whichever is the lesser;
- c. the Excess that applies on the acquisition will be the same as for similar items of Insured Property covered under the Policy;
- d. You provide Us with written notice of such acquisition within 30 days of purchase and pay the additional premium We may require.

Automatic Reinstatement of Sum Insured (Section A only)

In the event of a claim being paid under Section A for Insured Property, or under the Additional or Optional Benefits in Section A, the amount by which the Sum Insured is reduced in consequence of the Damage will be automatically reinstated as from the date of the Damage provided that:

- a. there is no written request from You or written notice from Us to the contrary;

- b. You pay the premium which We require for the reinstatement.

Cross Liability

We agree that each person comprising the insured named in the Schedule or specified as entitled to cover is considered as if that person were the only person insured (except to the extent We specify otherwise), and We waive Our rights of subrogation against any of those persons.

Examination

Our representatives shall be permitted at all reasonable times during the currency of the Policy to inspect and examine the Insured Property and the operating records. If during inspection by Us of any Insured Property under the Policy any new facts of a nature likely to increase the risk are observed You must at Our request restore the risk to normal within an agreed time. If You fail to do so We may cancel the Policy.

Governing law and jurisdiction

The laws of Australia govern the Policy. Any dispute relating to the Policy shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of an Australian Court within the State or Territory in which the Policy was issued.

Interests of other parties

- a. The insurable interest of only those lessors, financiers, trustees, mortgagees, owners and all other parties having a legal interest or charge over the Insured Property and who are specifically noted in Your records, shall be automatically included as third party beneficiaries without notification to or specification by Us. The nature and extent of such interest is to be disclosed to Us in the event of Damage. Any other people not in this category or not named on the Schedule are not covered and cannot make a claim. All third party beneficiaries must comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy.
- b. Where the protection provided by the Policy covers the interest of more than one party, any act or omission of an individual party will not prejudice the rights of the remaining parties:
 - (i) subject to General Exclusion 1.d. Wilful acts; and
 - (ii) provided the remaining parties must, immediately on becoming aware of any act or omission that increases the risk of loss, Damage or liability, give notice in writing to Us and on demand pay any reasonable additional premium We may require.

GST Notice

The Policy has a GST provision in relation to premium and Our payment to You for claims. It may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read it carefully. Seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and Your insurance.

Sums insured

All monetary limits in the Policy may be increased for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay You, We will have regard to the items below:

1. Where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a Damaged item insured under the Policy) We will pay for the GST amount. We will pay the GST amount in addition to the Sum Insured/Limit of Liability or other limits shown in the Policy or in the Schedule. If Your Sum Insured/Limit of Liability is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which You are or would be entitled.
2. Where We make a payment under the Policy as compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that You would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.
3. Where the Policy insures business interruption, We will (where relevant) pay You on Your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by Your business that is relevant to Your claim.

Disclosure – Input Tax Credit Entitlement

If You register, or are registered, for GST You are required to tell Us Your entitlement to an input tax credit on Your premium. If You fail to disclose or understate Your entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim We may pay. The Policy does not cover You for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which You may be liable.

Other Insurance

In the event of any claim being made under the Policy, You must notify Us of any other insurance covering the same loss or Damage of which You are aware.

Reasonable care and maintenance

You must take all reasonable care to:

- a. prevent loss, Damage or legal liability;
- b. maintain the Insured Property in sound condition, in particular to minimise or avoid theft, loss, Damage or liability;
- c. comply with all statutory obligations, by-laws, regulations, public authority requirements and safety requirements;
- d. minimise any loss or Damage; and
- e. only employ competent employees and ensure they adhere to the requirements specified in a. – d. above.

Salvage

If Your Insured Property is a Total Loss and We have agreed to replace the Insured Property or pay the Market Value or Sum Insured:

- the wreckage of the Insured Property will become Our property; and
- We will keep the proceeds of any salvage sale.

Transfer

The insurance granted by the Policy shall cease to attach to any item of Insured Property in which Your interest passes from You otherwise than by will or operation of law unless Our consent for the continuance of the insurance is obtained and signified by endorsement hereon.

Waiver of subrogation rights

To the extent permitted by law, We will not be liable to pay any benefits under the Policy for loss or Damage if You agree or have agreed to limit or exclude any right of recovery against any third party who would be liable to compensate You with respect to that loss or Damage unless agreed to in writing.

Your representative – authorisation

By entering into the Policy, You agree that the person representing You when completing the proposal is authorised to give and receive information on Your behalf in relation to all matters arising under the Policy and in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.
